

2nd Annual RevHoney Chad McDaniel Memorial

Speedway Motors Midget Money week presented by Rev Honey will kick off Thursday July 28 at Solomon Valley Raceway in Beloit KS for the 2nd Annual Rev Honey Chad McDaniel Memorial. Last year's 2 day event was an unbelievable display of open wheel dirt action. Comments from last years event explained both classes putting on the best racing that some people have ever seen. Over 35 cars in both Midget and 600 classes showing off wheel stands, slide jobs and photo finishes we could not be more excited to see Powri, RMMRA and BMARA returning. 2011 looks to be even more spectacular. If you like jumping to your feet, biting your nails and mud in your beer you won't want to miss this one. Following the 2nd Annual RevHoney Chad McDaniel Memorial on Fri July 29 & 30 will be the 2 day Cornhusker Midget Nationals at Junction Motor Speedway paying $12,000 to win. This will be one of the highest paying midget purses for 2011. While heading home on Sunday July 31 we will stop at US 36 Raceway in Cameron, MO. POWRi will host the RMMRA and BMARA Midget series for these four events.
